Contract for Big Blue Competition New Color Guard for Band, fall 2011

DUE TO THE IMPORTANT NATURE OF THIS DOCUMENT, WE MUST HAVE IT RETURNED BY FRIDAY, MAY 20, 2011

Please check the blank that applies to you (carefully read the entire document, front and back before marking):

_____ I have made the top 3 concert bands and color guard and I wish to participate in the competition band next fall. I understand that I must commit to attending outside first-period rehearsal and after-school rehearsals scheduled for my unit of the marching band. I will not be involved in any other after-school activities on the days listed below. I understand that if I become involved in after-school activities causing me to miss on the rehearsal days listed below, I am subject to be replaced in the competition group.

These rehearsals are first-period (outside as needed) and:

Color Guard sleep-over	Friday, June 3, 7pm-7am Sat.
Rifle-line auditions	Wed. May 18—3:00pm
Color Guard camp:	June 6-10, 9:30am-6pm with a lunch break. Weapons may stay until 7pm.
Camp registration day:	Friday, July 22, drop by between 8am and 5pm
Full Band Camp:	July 25-29, 10am-12 and 1:30-5:30; 9 th -grade starts at 8:00am

(OR)

_____ I have made the top 3 bands and color guard, but plan to participate in an activity that will make me late to some after-school band rehearsals. I understand that I must make it to after school rehearsal within a pre-arranged time frame to maintain my position in the competition band. I will work this out with the sponsor/coach of my other activity. I will communicate with the band directors CONSISTENTLY THROUGHOUT THE SEASON to keep my schedule together. Please note: If you need special arrangements made for your rehearsal schedule due to another school activity, a rehearsal/practice schedule must be arranged in advance of the season and put in writing. Both the band director and the activity sponsor must agree to the arrangement so that neither group suffers. It is incumbent upon the student to adhere to the written schedule and/or to communicate directly (not through other students) in the event that changes occur.

List after-school activities and their sponsors:
